

I am concerned about further consolidation of our media. This runs contrary to the "multiplicity of sources" recommended by the Supreme Court and Commissioner Adelstein's comments posted on our webpage. This is important enough to take sufficient time for discussion and to allow the public you are supposed to represent to see the text you are considering adopting.